

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Media Contact: Nicole Garrouette
(415) 673.0911 ext. 305
ngarrouette@larkinstreetyouth.org

Robert P. Wayman, Hewlett-Packard Company, receives Hall of Fame Lifetime Achievement Award
Wayman will be honored at the 5th Annual Bay Area CFO of the Year Awards

San Francisco, CA – February 12, 2010 – The Independent Selection Panel of the Bay Area CFO of the Year Awards announced today Robert P. Wayman, Retired Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, Hewlett-Packard Company, as the recipient of the 2010 Hall of Fame - Lifetime Achievement Award. Serving as EVP and CFO of HP from 1984 until 2006, Wayman's long career has included virtually every financial leadership function. He began with HP in 1969 as a cost accountant, and was at various times responsible for IT, real estate, legal and HR, in addition to overseeing the controller function, treasury, tax, audit and investor relations. By the time of his retirement as CFO, Wayman had served as Interim CEO at HP and on the boards of HP, Sybase, Con-way and Affymetrix, as well as on the Advisory Board of the Kellogg School at Northwestern University in Chicago.

Wayman, along with the Finalists and Winners in six other CFO award categories will be honored at the fifth annual Bay Area CFO of the Year Awards on May 26, 2010 at the Four Seasons Hotel San Francisco. The awards dinner is a sell-out event attended by prominent Bay Area business executives. All proceeds benefit Larkin Street Youth Services, the leading nonprofit providing housing, education, job assistance, medical and social services to homeless and high risk youth in San Francisco.

"I am deeply honored by this tribute and proud to share it with the many wonderful and talented people I've worked with through my years at HP," said Wayman. "I am particularly proud to receive this award from an organization dedicated to highlighting the work of financial leaders while raising funds to help homeless kids find their way in the world."

Past recipients of the the Hall of Fame - Lifetime Achievement Award are Peter A. Darbee, PG&E Corporation, Pacific Gas and Electric Company; Andy D. Bryant, Intel Corporation; Jeffrey O. Henley, Oracle; and Lou Lavinge, Genentech, Inc.

Finalists for the Bay Area CFO of the Year will be announced in March, and the Winners will be announced at the dinner and awards ceremony on May 26. Finalists and winners will be chosen by a blue ribbon independent Selection Panel comprised of business and academic leaders including, Alison Davis, Managing Partner, Belvedere Capital; Mary Huss, Publisher, San Francisco Business Times; Lou Lavigne, Former CFO Genentech, Managing Director, LavigneGroupe; Rich Lyons, Dean, Haas School of Business, U C Berkeley; Ann Mather, Audit Committee Chair, Google; and Gideon Yu, General Partner, Khosla Ventures.

About The Bay Area CFO of the Year Awards

Now in its fifth year, The Bay Area CFO of the Year Awards is a partnership between the San Francisco Business Times and Larkin Street Youth Services. The event has raised $1.5 million over the past four years to benefit Larkin Street Youth Services.

Title Sponsors for the 2010 Bay Area CFO of the Year Awards are Comerica Bank and Deloitte.

About Larkin Street Youth Services

Founded in 1984, San Francisco's Larkin Street Youth Services is an internationally recognized leader providing innovative, effective housing, medical, social and educational services to at-risk homeless and runaway youth ages 12-24 across 25 programs and 13 sites. Eighty percent of youth who complete Larkin Street's comprehensive programs exit street life. For more information, please visit www.larkinstreetyouth.org.

###